HIGHVIEW,
MYSORE.

Thursday

(146) To P.I-4

My dear Margo

Thanks for your letter. I shall tell Mr Y if it is decided to [illegible] — 3rd Princess had a party yesterday I was very busy arranging the flats all filled with [illegible] Indians. I was [illegible] people like the

MOWBRAY COTTAGE,
FERNHILL, NILGIRIS.

Dear Mrs. Hein yr

Just a line to say that we have received the 25 vols. of 'The Art Magazine' and sent Rs. 100 — from His Highness to Mrs Todhunter.

Lady Pentland ought to be very pleased, that made

Sub 8.4.16 (146) To P.I-4
M
26/5

my camp, and would like one of Sunderals. My husband went early to Clerk Races on Saturday I think he is paying Mr Banerji much attention! I did not get near Clerk Rhoda until nearly 6 o'c Mrs H had visitors I cleared out just before my husband arrived after Clerk yesterday please him. Father enjoyed his self great a good dinner and slipped off immediately after, which shows his idea of a pleasant evening.

The rest 'musicked'. The Cooch Behars seem very charming. I met them at Tennis, & the effervescing Bhaiyadhiel is enjoying his head off.

With kindest regards from us all.

Yours ever
Emily Pownall

21.5.16.

Emily has selected a nice new reading-lesson frame frame for Mrs H birthday for you to see — also I send the address you will be happy I sowed celeb & fest — nice Mr Inniga comes Mrs H evening but I fear I hope to have her meine & beverage at pleasure y seeing her Xmas & news fest at Som. The present — basket. also one secret — book is a clean hand with his Xmas card - smiling man. but not so yr Mrs / yr a good cook I think owed set me, I be had bella make

---

and gave him some extra shoes.
People who had tea paid 6as. and owed eat as much as they wished, but I heard some bitter complaints as to Lone appetites, they had evidently reserved
themselves for an orgy!
Yuva Rajah had a dinner party which we three attended to a good Sum, though I don't wonder people rather grumbled, as there are so many demands just now.

I am had 18 coconut
shies, and was so excited he never got within 2 yards of the German target, this his friend, a Sent Keep putting him close